Efficient, Simple, Versatile . . . Made For The

In today’s busy workplace, getting a competitive edge means accomplishing more – often with fewer resources. This means having office systems that work as hard as you do. The RICOH FAX2210L is an affordable workhorse that combines high-speed fax, print, color scan and convenience copying features in a space-saving, desktop design. The reliable, energy-efficient RICOH FAX2210L guarantees you immediate gains in office productivity, making this proven performer the answer to your document communication and imaging needs.

Images That Last

Don’t settle for anything less than laser quality. Whether printing incoming fax messages, making copies, or printing from your PC, the RICOH FAX2210L’s precision Laser Print Engine produces crisp, clean output with impressive speed — up to 17 Pages Per Minute! You can even print on envelopes through the single-sheet bypass. And connecting the RICOH FAX2210L couldn’t be easier. The FAX2210L’s built-in USB and Parallel Interfaces will connect to either port on your computer, so you’re up and running in minutes.

Capture the Spirit with Color

Once connected, the RICOH FAX2210L serves not only as a fax-printer but also as a TWAIN-compatible Color Scanner. Easily capture color images — photos, brochures, and maps — through the FAX2210L’s Automatic Document Feeder. Insert a full-color image into a presentation, report, or attach to an e-mail.

Enjoy Uninterrupted Workflow

- The high capacity, letter-size 50-page Automatic Document Feeder and quick 1.5-Second-Per-Page Scan Speed make faxing multi-page documents, copying and scanning to your PC virtually effortless.
- Save time by minimizing paper-replenishment tasks with the front-loading 250-sheet Letter / Legal Paper Cassette. Upgrade capacity to 500 sheets by adding a second optional 250-sheet Letter / Legal Paper Cassette, ensuring smooth, continuous operation.

High-Speed Fax Communication

- To seamlessly process your peak fax traffic, the RICOH FAX2210L employs a Super G3 33.6-Kbps Modem, with JBIG Compression, for fast, cost-cutting transmission speed of 3 Seconds Per Page*, twice as fast as conventional fax modems.

Convenient, Smooth Operation

- Streamline your workflow and ensure you never miss a fax with the RICOH FAX2210L’s standard high capacity 400-Page Memory (5 MB).
- Stop waiting. With Dual-Access, scan pages while the unit is busy printing (or transmitting).
- Save time by broadcasting a document to multiple locations, in a single operation.
- Worried about missing orders or customers getting a busy signal when the fax runs out of paper? Not any more. The RICOH FAX2210L’s 72-hour Memory Backup retains all incoming fax messages in memory if a power outage, paper outage, or misfeed occurs.
Work You Do

The clearly labeled, intuitive control panel of the RICOH FAX 2210L allows quick access to any function.

Scan images directly to your PC with full color TWAIN scanning.

Autodialing At Your Fingertips
- Simplify the faxing process by storing frequently dialed fax numbers in Quick and Speed Dials, for swift, accurate recall. No memorization, manual dialing or misdialing.

Carefree Maintenance
- Replacing toner is a snap using the All-in-One Toner Cartridge. This one cartridge contains toner, developer and drum, eliminating the hassle of stocking and replacing separate consumables.

Contain Costs, Conserve Energy
- To lower energy consumption and costs, the Energy Star-compliant RICOH FAX2210L offers an Energy Saver Mode that reduces the system’s electrical requirements when idle.

Walk-up Copy Convenience
- Need a quick copy? The RICOH FAX2210L makes up to 99 Convenience Copies, with the added flexibility of Reduce/Enlarge, Contrast Control and Text/Photo settings.

The RICOH FAX2210L is expertly engineered to handle the communications and imaging needs of a busy workgroup, small business, executive suite, or any place you need a complete office solution that’s cost efficient, reliable and easy to use.
